HHS Buyers Club

Problem

- IT projects >$10 million either challenged or failed
 - According to the 2013 Chaos Manifesto from the Standish Group

Solution

- Reengineer acquisition processes to seek better value and outcome for contracted services.
- Utilize innovative acquisition methods
- Incentivizing operational and cultural change
- Evaluate vendor capabilities more than writing skills

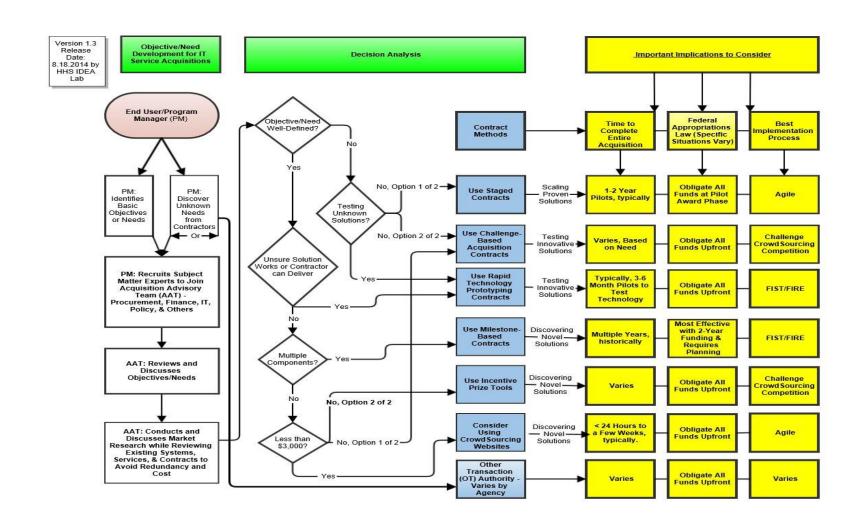

HHS Buyers Club – Goals/Objectives

- Testing innovative acquisition methodologies
 - Development and sharing of Use Cases based on the results for everyone to benefit
- Development of newer, easier, more effective acquisition models and processes
 - Markets always change (i.e. CrowdSourcing)
- Engagement of all key stakeholders with effective education/outreach
 - Acquisition models/processes should work for all

SECRETARY BURWELL: LEADING & MANAGING FOR IMPACT

Secretary Burwell addresses students and faculty at George Washington University to share how the Department of Health and Human Services will work to deliver impact for the American people.

"This institution is a tremendous leader on so many health and human services issues. From research that is revolutionizing the treatment of cancers to biomedical engineering to your work training the next generation of doctors, nurses, social workers and perhaps cabinet secretaries.

I've had the privilege of working with many G.W. colonials including many of the talented members of our staff at the Department of Health and Human Services."

BETTER RESEARCH FOR BETTER POLICY

The Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation (ASPE) is the principal advisor to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services on policy development, and is responsible for major activities in policy coordination, legislation development, strategic planning, policy research, evaluation, and economic analysis.
